

What the AARP!

News and Notes from AARP Michigan

Welcome to AARP Michigan's monthly newsletter featuring quick news, helpful tips, things to do and much more.

View archived newsletters here:

ARCHIVE

Facebook Marketplace: Bargain or Scam?

Facebook Marketplace feels like a neighborhood garage sale, but scammers aim to take advantage of both buyers and sellers. Here's how to spot and avoid them.

READ

Bronchitis vs. Pneumonia

Got a bad cough? It could be one of these common wintertime illnesses. Learn how to know the difference.

FIND OUT

5 Ways to Lower Home Energy Costs

Oil and natural gas prices are declining, but it's still expensive to warm your home. Here are some quick money-saving tips to get you through winter's last chill.

SAVE $$

6 Sneaky Ways Retailers Get You to Open Your Wallet

Do you spend more than you intend when shopping? It's time to sharpen your consumer defenses! Uncover the retail tricks designed to make you spend more money.

SHOP SMART

Love Endures through Caregiving

AARP Michigan spoke with caregivers across the state about their experiences and journeys. Here is one of their stories.

READ NOW

Tune in for Sex at 50+, Money Tips & More

Don't miss the MI Sisters & Friends virtual series on issues that matter to women, from financial security to caring for a family member and sex at 50+.

REGISTER

Get Your Taxes Done for Free

From now until the end of tax season, the AARP Foundation Tax-Aide program is providing complimentary tax preparation across Michigan.

LEARN MORE

Scrub/Erase Personal Info from Your Phone [Video]

If you're thinking of replacing your phone, you may want to remove any personal information before you hand off or discard it. Learn how.

FIND OUT

