COOKIE NOTICE

HOW DO WE USE COOKIES AND SIMILAR TECHNOLOGIES?

We collect information automatically through the use of cookies and other similar technologies when you visit and/or use our online services.

Selected third parties also set their own cookies or place pixel tags on our websites. The use of these technologies by third parties are subjected to their own privacy policies and is not covered by this privacy notice, except for purposes listed below.

1. Cookies

   1.1 A cookie is a text file containing small amounts of information that a website can send to your browser, which may then be stored on your computer as an anonymous tag that identifies your computer but not you.

   1.2 Cookies may be either "persistent" cookies or "session" cookies: a persistent cookie will be stored by a web browser and will remain valid until its set expiry date, unless deleted by the user before the expiry date; a session cookie, on the other hand, will expire at the end of the user session, when the web browser is closed

   1.3 Our websites use analytics cookies for the following purposes :

Analytics Cookies. These cookies collect information that is used either in aggregate form to help us understand how the website is being used and help us customise the website for you. This information will also be used for the purpose of evaluating your use of the website, compiling reports on website activity and other analyses relating to website activity and internet usage. Information collected from analytics cookies are stored on a per-session basis.	Google Analytics / Google Tag Manager	Google	Measure users' interaction with website content.	You may disable any of these cookies by opting out. By doing so, web analytics tracking will be unavailable.

1.4 You can set your browser for a notification prior to you receiving a cookie, giving you the chance to decide whether to accept it or not. For most types of cookies, including those we use for analytics and advertising purposes, you have the right to tell us that you do not want to use them when you visit our websites. You can also set your browser to turn off the cookies; however, if you do this, some of our websites may not work properly.

1.5 If you want to know more about cookies, check out www.aboutcookies.org.
