Emirates – Code of Conduct for the prevention of sexual exploitation of children and adolescents

Commitment to preventing exploitation

Emirates is committed to preventing the exploitation of children and adolescents and undertakes to:

- a) Refrain from offering passengers and the general public, expressly or surreptitiously, tourism plans or transportation services that in any way include sexual exploitation of children and adolescents.
- b) Refrain from providing information to passengers and the general public, directly or through an intermediary, about places from where sexual exploitation of children and adolescents is coordinated or practiced.
- c) Refrain from transporting passengers or the general public, directly or through third parties, to establishments or sites where sexual exploitation of children and/or adolescents is practiced.
- d) Refrain from transporting, directly or through third parties, children or adolescents to establishments or sites, even if they are ships anchored or at sea for the purpose of sexual exploitation.
- e) Refrain from facilitating aircraft on routes for the purposes of exploitation or sexual abuse of children and adolescents.
- f) Have a Supplier Code of Conduct in place covering the prohibition of harassment, abuse, involuntary labour and human trafficking.
- g) Report to the relevant authorities any incidents that, in the course of providing air transport services, have been substantiated, as well as the existence of locations associated with the sexual exploitation of children and adolescents.
- h) Ensure compliance with the established procedures for reporting to the relevant authorities all incidents related to the alleged sexual exploitation of children and adolescents.
- i) Design and disseminate, within the company and its providers of goods or services related to the provision of air transport service, measures to prevent all forms of sexual exploitation of children and adolescents.
- j) Inform all its personnel of the existence of legal provisions on the prevention of sexual exploitation of children and adolescents and any other measures adopted by the company in this regard.
- k) Inform all its users or clients, via this notice, about the legal consequences in Colombia of the sexual exploitation and abuse of children and adolescents.
