Event Updates

Awards and Recognition

- TWM was selected as a member of the Dow Jones Sustainability Indices'
 Emerging Markets Index for the third year in a row (2012~2014).
- TWM's cloud internet data center (IDC) was nominated as a finalist of the "Innovation in the Mega-Data Center" award by DatacenterDynamics, the world's largest third party data center analysis institute.
- The 2013 CSR report received the International Standards on Assurance Engagements (ISAE) 3000 certification, a first for a telecom operator in Taiwan.

With the acquisition of 5MHz on the 700MHz frequency band from Ambit, TWM will have the largest 4G spectrum of 35MHz, including particular, the biggest contiguous spectrum of 20MHz on the 700MHz band, leading TWM to be best positioned to provide the fastest 4G service to the consumers and increase corporate value to our shareholders. Additionally, we will adjust 4G product offerings to better monetize our 4G investments.
