Current Account in Maldivian Rufiyaa Rules & Regulations

INTRODUCTION

These rules and regulations set out the contract between the Account Holder and The Mauritius Commercial Bank (Maldives) Pvt Ltd (also referred to as The MCB' or the 'Bank') and set out the duties, responsibilities and rights of both the Customer and the Bank and also provide general information about the:

- Key features of the account
- Additional services available on the account
- MCB's interest rates and charges

The MCB may from time to time amend the rules and regulations hereof and shall notify such amendments to the Account Holder.

WHEN OPENING A CURRENT ACCOUNT IN MALDIVIAN RUFIIYAA, IT IS AGREED AND ACKNOWLEDGED THAT:

IDENTITY OF CUSTOMERS

1. As per the Maldivian Banking Act 2010, the Bank shall only open accounts where it is satisfied that the true identity of the person applying for business relationship has been established. The applicant should submit to the Bank originals of all proof of identity and proof of address which the Bank shall deem necessary, i.e. ID, utility bills and any other documents as may be requested by the Bank from time to time. Any change in respect of same should be communicated forthwith to the Bank.

OPENING OF ACCOUNTS

2. An account may be opened in the names of:
 - An individual in his own name
 - Two or more individual persons in their joint names
 - Any other entity as may be permitted by law (e.g. a company/society/partnership/club/association...)
3. The Customer will be requested to deposit the required minimum amount in conformity with the Bank's policy.
4. The Bank reserves the right to reject an application for the opening of a Current Account in conformity with the Bank's policy.

ACCOUNT MAINTENANCE

5. The Customer shall not overdraw his account without the prior authorisation of the Bank. Where a Customer is authorised to overdraw his account, the facility is deemed repayable on demand.
6. Any unauthorised overdrawn balance shall be charged a penalty rate above the rate applicable to the overdraft/account category of the Customer.

INTEREST, FEES AND CHARGES

7. Debit interest at the prevailing rate on overdrawn balances shall be charged to the account on the last day of the month.
8. In case The MCB requires the service of attorneys to obtain the recovery of any overdrawn balance on a Customer's account, all costs, commissions and accessories, including taxes as applicable will be due and payable by the Customer.
9. The MCB shall publicise details of any changes to rates of interest, fees or charges to Customers.
10. The fees and charges applicable to the account and to other services and products offered by the Bank are listed in the Table of Fees and Charges displayed at the Bank's branches and MCB's website (www.mcbmaldives.com).

DEPOSITS AND PAYMENTS

11. Application for cheque books shall be effected through the cheque book order form designed for that purpose or through MCB's remote channels such as, inter alia, Internet Banking. Cheque books shall normally be available after two working days.
12. Cheque books will be handed over to the Account Holder(s) or to any third party appointed by the Account Holder.
13. The cost of the cheque book will be debited to the Customer's account.

14. Cheques must be drawn on the pre-printed cheque forms provided by the Bank.
15. Cheques should be drawn in such a way as to prevent alteration after issue.
16. Any alteration on the cheque should be authenticated by the drawer's signature.
17. Drawings will not be accepted or operated against lodgements, the relative entries of which have not yet been made in The MCB's books. In case of lodgements comprising cheques, drawings will not be accepted until such effects are cleared. In case an instrument drawn on an overseas bank and sent for collection by The MCB is subsequently returned unpaid, the depositor's account shall be debited with the amount of the item returned unpaid plus the Bank's charges. Any fee claimed by overseas correspondents in respect of unpaid item/s shall be debited to the depositor's account at the selling rate of exchange prevailing on the current day.

LOSS OR THEFT OF CHEQUE BOOK

18. (i) Customers are liable for the safekeeping of their cheque books.
(ii) In case of theft of their cheque book, Customers will be required to provide the Bank with a police statement.
(iii) Withdrawals can be effected from the account by means of the Bank's prescribed form.

STOP PAYMENT OF CHEQUES

19. Customers may request the Bank in writing to stop the payment of a cheque before same has been presented for payment unless the Bank has committed itself to honour such cheque, for example by having certified it good for payment.
20. Customers will be required to provide for full particulars of the cheque.
21. Fees for stop payment of cheques will be debited to the Customer's account.

STATEMENT OF ACCOUNT

22. The Bank shall send a statement of account to the Customer's last known address/email address at least every month.
23. (i) A Customer is required to exercise reasonable promptness in examining the statement of account made available to him to determine any discrepancies.
(ii) In case of discrepancies the Customer shall promptly notify the Bank.

JOINT ACCOUNT

24. The joint account holders shall be responsible individually and together for observing these rules and regulations. Further information on operating a joint account will be provided on opening such account.

DORMANT ACCOUNT

25. All deposits which have been left untouched by the Customer for a period of 5 years will be considered as abandoned. A letter will be sent to the Customer's last known address to that effect and if the Customer does not respond within the prescribed period, the account will be closed.
26. In consequence, the deposit together with any interest accrued will be transferred without formality to the Central Bank, to be dealt with as decided by the Central Bank, in accordance with section 35(A) of the Maldives Banking Act 2010.

INACTIVE ACCOUNT

27. (i) All accounts on which there have been no transaction other than non-user initiated accounting entries such as interest payments, for a period of 1 year will be considered as inactive.
(ii) Prior to effecting any transaction on inactive accounts, Customers will be required to reactivate them by complying to the current procedures at the time of reactivation.
(iii) The inactivity period referred to may change as decided by the Bank.

RESTRICTIONS

28. The Bank shall not process a transaction if it is not reasonably satisfied of:
 - The identity or authority of any person requesting the transaction, or
 - The lawfulness of the transaction

CLOSURE OF ACCOUNTS

29. Customers wishing to close their accounts can do so either by writing or using pre-printed forms available at MCB. They will be required to return to the Bank any unused cheques.
30. The Bank shall normally proceed with the account closure within 5 working days unless otherwise advised by the Bank.
31. The Bank reserves the right, in its sole discretion, to close any account without prior notice:
 - (a) if the account is not properly maintained.
 - (b) if no transaction has been initiated by the Customer within six months as from the date of opening of such account and the said account does not display a positive balance at such time.
 - (c) if required by a court order or where the account is used for illicit transactions.

CORRECTION OF ERRONEOUS ENTRIES

32. In case of erroneous entries, the Bank shall proceed with the relative contra entries and advise the Customers accordingly.

COMPLAINTS PROCEDURE

33. 33. Should the customer not be satisfied with the Bank's level of service or have any other complaints, he should contact the Branch Manager or Operations Supervisor who will attend promptly to all his queries.

31. Investigation and resolution:

- (i) Should further investigation be required, we will refer your written complaint to a dedicated officer who will acknowledge same within 3 working days.
- (ii) We aim to resolve your complaint within 10 working days from the date the complaint was received and will notify you should the investigation take longer than 10 working days.
- (iii) A verbal or written response will be provided on the conclusion reached and the remedial actions taken.

32. Escalation process:

Should you be unsatisfied with the outcome at the end of the investigation, you may put your complaint in writing to the Head of Operations and Customer Service and subsequently to the Managing Director at the following address:
