

Georgetown University IPN

Helpful Information

December 1: Application Deadline

January-March: Interviews

Late March: Final decision from the program

April 15: Deadline to notify the program of decision to enroll

July 1: Program starts for Summer

IPN Program:

- IPN Website: <https://neuroscience.georgetown.edu>
- IPN Admissions: <https://neuroscience.georgetown.edu/admissions>
- IPN FAQ Page: <https://neuroscience.georgetown.edu/admissions-faq/>
- Program Faculty: <https://neuroscience.georgetown.edu/faculty-and-students/faculty/>

Biomedical Graduate Education (BGE):

- Tuition & Fee Information
- Scholarship & Funding Information
 - For the PhD program, you are eligible to apply for the Affiliation- and Recruitment-Based Application Fee Waiver. If you are applying for the waiver for the PhD program, please review the detailed instructions. If you have any questions related to the waiver application, please email BGE Admissions.
 - Scholarship & Funding Information for International Students
- BGE FAQ Page
- BGE Additional Info for International Applicants

Additional Info for International Applicants:

- Office of Global Services
- Immigration Request Processing Times - helpful information
- If accepted into the IPN, F1 & J1 students must attend mandatory information sessions led by International Student & Scholar Services.

General Campus Tour:

To Schedule a general Virtual or On-Campus Tour of Georgetown University

For additional questions, please contact the program coordinator, Katie VanHouten at kv290@georgetown.edu.