VANGUARD strives for 100% satisfaction and we stand behind the quality and performance of our products. Under our Premium Lifetime Warranty, we're happy to fully repair or replace your qualifying VANGUARD optics. No hassles. No questions asked. Just return the binoculars or spotting scope along with a $10 check or money order for shipping and handling.*

* The Premium Lifetime Warranty is valid for those who reside within the 50 United States and Canada. U.S. customers should follow the procedure outlined. Canadian customers should contact the store where the product was purchased for a product exchange. Qualifying optics include VANGUARD's flagship optics products: All Endeavor Series spotting scopes, Endeavor ED Series binoculars and Spirit ED Series binoculars. VANGUARD optics not listed here or introduced several years ago, remain covered under their original warranties. The Premium Lifetime Warranty does not cover theft, loss of product, deliberate damage, unauthorized repair damage, modification or disassembly of the product. In other words, don't use the product for stunt purposes. Don't attempt repair of the product on your own or take it apart. Leave that to us.
