The rights mentioned in (a) to (g) above may be executed by contacting us as indicated in the

"How To Contact Us" section of this Privacy Notice. To help protect your privacy and maintain security, we will take steps to verify your identity before granting you access to the information. In addition, if you believe that personal information we maintain about you is inaccurate, subject to applicable law you may have the right to request that we correct or amend the information by contacting us as indicated below.

7. Data Transfers

We may transfer the personal data we collect about you to the following countries other than the country in which the information originally was collected:

- United States of America.

Those countries may not have the same data protection laws as the country in which you initially provided the information. When we transfer your information to other countries, we will protect that information as described in this Privacy Notice and in accordance with applicable law. We use contractual protections for the transfer of personal information among various jurisdictions (the European Commission's standard contractual clauses referred to in Article 46. 2 (c) of the GDPR).

8. How We Protect Personal Data

We use appropriate administrative, technical and physical safeguards to protect the personal information you provide against accidental, unlawful or unauthorized destruction, loss, alteration, access, disclosure or use, e.g. we maintain backup copies and only authorized personnel may access the data.

9. Updates To Our Privacy Notice

This Privacy Notice may be updated periodically and without prior notice to you to reflect changes in our personal information practices. Jarvis Lighting will notify You about any changes made in the content of these Privacy Notice by the notification in the Jarvis Link or by email. By downloading, installing, accessing or using any portion of the Jarvis Link, you will be deemed to have accepted such amendments.

Privacy Notice Addendum

Addendum to Privacy Notice for Canada

Personal information maintained and processed by our Jarvis Lighting affiliates and third-party service providers in the U.S. and other foreign jurisdictions may be subject to disclosure pursuant to a lawful access request by U.S. or foreign courts or government authorities. We will not provide your information to third parties for marketing purposes without your prior consent.

For more information about our privacy practices; to access, update or correct inaccuracies in your personal information; or if you have a question or complaint about the manner in which we or our service providers treat your personal information, please contact the Global Privacy Manager located in the U.S., whose address is indicated above.

Addendum to Privacy Notice for Mexico

To the extent Mexican privacy laws or regulations apply, the following additional Mexico-specific provisions apply and shall prevail over conflicting provisions in the Privacy Notice.

How We Use The Information We Obtain

In addition, we may use your personal information for the other purposes listed in the "How We Use The Information We Obtain" section of the Privacy Notice, which may be considered secondary purposes under Mexican law.

We do not use or share personal payment or financial information except in connection with the processing of payments or where there is another legal basis.

You may withdraw your consent to our processing of your personal information by contacting us as indicated in the "How To Contact Us" section of the Privacy Notice. If you withdraw your consent for us to process your personal information for one of the primary purposes indicated above, then in some situations we may not be able to provide the service, though we may still engage in certain processing authorized by law.

Jarvis Lighting may also use Lighting Device data and related data analysis in other Jarvis Lighting products and services.

Information We Share

We may share your personal information as provided in the Privacy Notice, but, to the extent permitted by law, you may withdraw your consent to this sharing by contacting us as indicated in the "How To Contact Us" section of the Privacy Notice.

We also share the Lighting Device and related information we obtain with our customers, partners, affiliates, and joint marketing partners. These entities, which collectively are referred to here as the "Jarvis Lighting Business Partners," may use the information for the purposes described in this Privacy Notice.

We may also share the commissioning date, physical location and performance of Lighting Devices with the Jarvis Lighting Business Partners and other third parties for warranty, troubleshooting or maintenance purposes, or for improving the design and performance of their products and services.

Requests for Access, Correction, Cancellation, Objection or Consent Withdrawal

In addition to any rights granted in the Privacy Notice, you can ask us to cancel your personal information to the extent permitted by law by contacting us as indicated in the "How to Contact Us" section of the Privacy Notice. Following a valid cancellation request, we may hold the personal data for the duration and purposes permitted by law before deleting it.

We will answer your requests to access, correct or cancel your personal information or to object or withdraw your consent to our processing of your personal information within 20 business days from the date we receive your complete request or as provided by law. To be considered complete, your request must include your full name and contact address, a copy of your ID, and a clear and detailed description of your request.

Addendum to Privacy Notice for Japan

Jarvis Lighting complies with Japanese laws and regulations, including the Act on the Protection of Personal Information. Jarvis Lighting is primarily responsible for the management of the personal information that is jointly used with our affiliates or third parties. We will not provide your information to third parties for marketing purposes without your prior consent.

Addendum to Privacy Notice for Republic of Korea

Except as otherwise required by law, consumer personal information is securely disposed of without delay when (i) the consumer revokes his or her consent for our use of the information, (ii) the purpose of our collection and use of the personal information has been accomplished or (iii) the legal retention period has expired. If applicable law requires the preservation of personal information that otherwise would be disposed of, the personal information is transferred to a separate database and then disposed of after the period determined by the applicable law. Personal information is disposed of using a method that is reasonably likely to prevent the personal information from being restored or reused.

We will not provide your personal information to third parties in violation of law (such as without your consent, where consent is required). For the purposes stated in the Privacy Notice, Jarvis Lighting or our affiliates are responsible for the handling of personal data with respect to services provided in Korea.
