

Event Speaker Biography

Anna Brabcová

Director of the Labour market integration department, Ministry of Labour and Social Affairs, Czech Republic

Anna Brabcová is the director of the labour market integration department at the Ministry of Labour and Social Affairs. In the past, she worked in the non-governmental sector, especially in the field of migration and human rights. She was director of the Consortium of NGOs working with migrants, previously worked at Amnesty International, worked at the UN office in Prague or in the area of European funds.

She has been dealing with issues of discrimination and equal rights, integration of disadvantaged groups, education and integration into the labour market.

She studied International Studies and Public and Social Policy at the Faculty of Social Sciences of Charles University in Prague.