The Peer Review

The Verdict

Shake shack, or as some like to make the analogy "East Coast In-N-Out", is an upscale chain burger restaurant located in UTC La Jolla. Aside from the typical burgers and fries some of the more unique items the peers got were Elizabeth's cheese fries, Ryan's vegetarian mushroom burger, and a shared Oreo milkshake. These, along with the typical assortment of burgers and regular fries, filled empty stomachs and are officially recommended by the peers!

Here is the unassuming mushroom burger. It features a fried portobello mushroom full of warm gooey cheese.
