

People Who Care About Me

When we're going through hard times, big changes, or feeling scared, there are people who can help us. "Safe people" care about you, talk with you, and listen to you. Color the picture of Karli and one of her "safe people," Chris. Then draw a picture of someone who cares about you.

Now draw someone who cares about you!