Work Experience

2019- Chief Economist, East Asia and Pacific Region, World Bank, Washington, D.C.
Responsibilities include: providing intellectual leadership and analysis in support of the design and implementation of reforms; working with Country Departments and Global Practices to align the knowledge program with regional strategic objectives, and strengthening the quality and impact of analytical and operational work; acting as regional spokesperson on economic issues for both internal and external audiences; enhancing the Bank's support on development policy by working with and strengthening networks of academic institutions and policy think tanks in the region.

2018-19 Director, World Development Report 2020 on Trading for Development in the Age of Global Value Chains. Led, with two other directors, Pol Antras and Caroline Freund, a team of economists to produce WDR2020, which focused on three questions: Are GVCs an opportunity or obstacle for development? Do they lead primarily to growth or also inequality? Is their interplay with new technologies a boon or curse for development? Drawing on the emerging evidence, the Report explored how national policies and international cooperation could promote sustainable and inclusive development in a GVC world.

2010-2019 Research Manager, Trade and Integration, World Bank, Washington, D.C.
Responsible for managing the World Bank's International Trade and Integration research team (DECTI) consisting of ten researchers and support staff. The research program focuses on the development-impact of policies affecting trade in goods and services, foreign direct investment, and international migration. Responsibilities include leading the team in formulating and conducting original, high quality policy-relevant research and disseminating results; acting as a spokesperson for the team's work program inside and outside the Bank; recruiting, coaching and mentoring team members to enhance their research and impact; shaping and distilling research to feed into the World Bank's country assistance programs; working with staff to provide support to Bank operations and advice to client governments; and participating in internal and external policy debate on globalization and development.

- 1999- Lead Economist Development Research Group (Senior Economist DRG and World Bank Institute until July 2002), World Bank, Washington, D.C.
Led a major project on international trade in services, conducting research on trade, trade policy and the operation of the WTO, providing analytical support to Bank operations and policy advice to client governments, with the objective of improving national policy as well as international trade agreements. The services project received substantial research grants and employed several Bank staff. In collaboration with the World Bank Institute, helped to enhance trade policy-making and negotiating capacity in developing countries through a variety of training and collaborative research-based activities.
- 1994-1999 Economic Counsellor, Trade in Services Division, World Trade Organization (WTO), Geneva.
Contributed to the development of new international rules on trade in services, conducted economic research on trade and trade policy in services, provided policy advice to delegations and assisted in the implementation of the General Agreement on Trade in Services. Secretary to the Working Party on GATS Rules and responsible for negotiations on emergency safeguard measures, government procurement of services and maritime transport services. Led a team working on the development of a database on countries' commitments on trade in services, and on the improvement of services statistics and nomenclature. Participated in and led missions providing technical assistance to developing countries.
- 1992-1994 Economic Affairs Officer, Economic Research and Analysis Unit, World Trade Organization (WTO), Geneva.
Assisted in the preparation of the WTO Annual Report and background papers for consultations in the Balance of Payments Committee of WTO, conducted research on trade and trade policy related subjects, and assisted other divisions of the WTO Secretariat, WTO panels, working parties and committees with research-related work.
- 1991-1992 Economic Affairs Officer, Trade Policies Review Division, General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade (GATT), Geneva.
Prepared comprehensive reports which analyze the measures affecting trade and the policy formulation process in selected countries.
- 1990-1991 Lecturer in Economics, University of Sussex, Falmer, Brighton.
Lectured undergraduate students on international trade theory and industrial economics. Supervised postgraduate students in the areas of development and international economics, and undergraduate students in economic principles.
- 1988-89 Lector in Economics, Churchill College, University of Cambridge.
Supervised undergraduate students in economic principles.
