

Republic of the Marshall Islands

The World Bank is working with the Marshall Islands government to address the significant challenges presented by the COVID-19 pandemic and climate change. The World Bank is supporting Marshallese-led projects focused on climate resilience and disaster preparedness, maritime improvement, sustainable fisheries, renewable energy, skills and education, early childhood development, and financial management.

- Energy & Extractives
- Transport
- Health
- Education
- Governance

Health

The Marshall Islands COVID-19 Emergency Response Project provides technical assistance to the Marshall Islands' Ministry of Health and Human Services for case detection, disease investigation, and contact tracing and supports longer term systems strengthening for public health emergencies.

Environment & Natural Resources

The Pacific Resilience Project aims to help communities in the Marshall Islands better prepare for the impacts of climate change through strengthening early warning systems, improving climate resilient investments in shoreline protection, and providing immediate and effective responses in a crisis or emergency.

Energy & Extractives

Through the Sustainable Energy Development Project, the World Bank is working to enhance the reliability of electricity supply, improve energy efficiency, and scale up renewable energy generation in the Marshall Islands. and supports longer term systems strengthening for public health emergencies.

Transport

The Marshall Islands Maritime Investment Project is improving the safety, efficiency and climate resilience of maritime infrastructure and operations across the country.

Current Projects

- COVID-19 Emergency Response Project
- Marshall Islands Maritime Investment Project
- Multisectoral Early Childhood Development Project
- Pacific Islands Regional Oceanscape Program
- Pacific Resilience Project II
- Project for Strengthening Public Financial Management
- RMI Education and Skills Strengthening Project
- Sustainable Energy Development Project

*Based on data as of 30 June 2021.

