Cheers to 2025: A Year of New Possibilities!

As we step into 2025, we want to thank our incredible community for your continued support and partnership. Together, we've achieved remarkable milestones in accessibility and inclusion, and we're excited for the opportunities the new year will bring.

May 2025 be a year of growth, innovation, and meaningful connections for all. From everyone at Dicapta, we wish you success and happiness in all your endeavors!

Welcoming 2025: A Year of Accessibility Milestones

As 2025 begins, exciting changes are on the horizon for accessibility worldwide. Expanded audio descriptions will soon reach more U.S. regions, enabling broader access to inclusive media, while the European Accessibility Act takes a bold step toward eliminating barriers across products and services. These advancements reflect a growing global commitment to inclusion and accessibility.

At Dicapta, we're dedicated to helping individuals and organizations navigate these changes and embrace the opportunities they bring. Explore how these milestones are shaping a more inclusive future and what they mean for creating accessible experiences for all. Read more in our blog.

🌟 The Monthly AD Spotlight 🌟
Bert and Ernie, caveman inventors

Welcome to The AD Spotlight, the newest addition to our newsletter! This section celebrates our team’s remarkable work. We’ll feature standout audio descriptions that excel in their creative use of language, seamless harmony with the original video, and approach to challenging descriptions.

This month, we’re excited to share one of our standout audio descriptions! In this excerpt from “Las grandes aventuras de Beto y Enrique” by Plaza Sésamo, the two friends dream they’re cavemen building a house for their pet dinosaur, Spotty. Along the way, they solve problems and accidentally discover tools still in use today.

Creating this description involved unique challenges, but also showcased the characters narrating much of the action—almost like an integrated audio description!
