Paragraph 11

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

11. Considers it essential for the EU and its Member States to maintain the possibility of preserving and developing their cultural and audiovisual policies, and to do so in the context of their existing laws, standards and agreements; calls, therefore, for the exclusion of cultural and audiovisual services, including those provided online, to be clearly stated in the negotiating mandate;

11. Considers it essential for the EU and its Member States to maintain the possibility of preserving and developing their cultural and audiovisual policies, and to do so in the context of their existing laws, standards and agreements; calls, therefore, for the negotiating mandate to confirm in an unambiguous manner that the EU and its Member States, in accordance with the Treaty provisions relating to the cultural and linguistic diversity of the European Union (Articles 3, 167(2) and 207(4) TFEU)), should retain the commensurate ability to develop these policies in order to take account of new developments in the audio-visual sector;
