Subject: Commission position on genocide in Palestine

1. Will the Commission commit to recognising and applying the decisions made by the International Criminal Court in its ongoing investigation into alleged war crimes committed in the Israeli-occupied territories?
2. Does the Commission consider it a priority that EU Member States cease arms exports to Israel and will it do so if it is proven that war crimes or serious human rights violations have been committed?
3. Against the current backdrop of violence and repression in the Occupied Palestinian Territories, is the Commission prepared to impose targeted sanctions on Israel to press for an end to violations of international humanitarian law and of human right, and if not, what other methods of exerting diplomatic pressure is the Commission considering?
