The Left:

§ 9

First part

'Calls for the acceleration of the screening process and the timely organisation of subsequent intergovernmental conferences, where negotiations on Cluster 1 on Fundamentals should be initiated; calls for the EU to adequately support accession-related reforms by developing robust and adaptable financial instruments tailored to the Republic of Moldova's specific needs with a view to effectively addressing its economic and structural challenges, and ensuring the country remains resilient and capable of implementing the necessary reforms throughout its EU accession process; urges the acceleration of Moldova's gradual integration into the EU and the single market by allowing participation in new initiatives and EU programmes which will deliver tangible socio-economic benefits in specific areas even before the country formally joins the EU;'

Second part

'reiterates its call, in this regard, for the EU to take swift and significant steps towards the permanent liberalisation of its tariff-rate quotas;'

2. The democratic backsliding and threats to political pluralism in Georgia

The Left: Recital O; Amendment 1
ESN: §§ 1, 2 (2nd part), 9, 22; Amendment 2
Renew: final vote

Requests for separate votes

PPE: Recital O
ESN: § 3

Requests for split votes

PPE:
§ 1
First part Text as a whole without the words: ‘and the law on “family values and protection of minors”
Second part those words

§ 5
First part ‘Reiterates its calls on the Commission to promptly assess how Georgia’s “transparency of foreign influence”
Second part ‘and “family values and protection of minors” laws, its abolition of gender quotas’
Third part ‘and other changes in its electoral legislation, the implementation of the Venice Commission’s recommendations in general and the conduct of the elections in line with accepted international standards, affect Georgia’s continuous fulfilment of the visa liberalisation benchmarks, in particular the fundamental rights benchmark, which is a crucial component of the EU visa liberalisation policy;’

Recital P
First part ‘whereas the Georgian authorities have not taken into account a single recommendation of the Venice Commission regarding the annulment or modification of the above-mentioned laws on “transparency of foreign influence”
Second part ‘and “family values and the protection of minors”, the abolition of gender quotas in local and parliamentary elections,’
Third part ‘and the formation of the Central Election Commission;’

S&D:
§ 18
First part Text as a whole without the words: ‘amid significant international backlash questioning the legitimacy of the upcoming elections’
Second part those words

§ 19
First part ‘Deplores the use by Georgian Dream of violent images of the war in Ukraine as a means of manipulating opinions and spreading disinformation’
Second part ‘and pro-Russian and anti-Ukrainian sentiment in its campaign ahead of the October 2024 elections’

- First part 'Strongly believes that the upcoming elections will be decisive in determining Georgia's future democratic development and geopolitical choice, as well its ability to make progress with its EU member state candidacy;'
- Second part 'recognises that it is still possible to consolidate Georgia's democratic future as an EU candidate country with a young, engaged generation of leaders, which was exemplified by the spontaneous protests against the foreign agent law that took place during 2024;'

ESN:

First part 'Calls on the Commission and the Member States to investigate the consequences of the democratic backsliding that these laws represent for their donor role in Georgia and to communicate this possible impact to the Government and Parliament of Georgia;'

Second part 'calls for all EU funding provided to the Georgian Government to be frozen until the above-mentioned undemocratic laws are repealed and for strict conditions to be placed on the disbursement of any future funding to the Georgian Government;'

§ 7

First part 'Deplores the personal role played by Georgia's oligarch Bidzina Ivanishvili, who returned to active politics on 30 December 2023 when he became "honorary chairman" of the Georgian Dream party, in the current political crisis and in yet another attempt to undermine the Euro-Atlantic orientation of the country in favour of pivoting towards Russia;'

Second part 'reiterates its call on the Council and the EU's democratic partners to impose immediate and targeted personal sanctions on Ivanishvili for his role in the deterioration of the political process in Georgia;'

§ 8

First part 'Calls for the EU and its Member States to hold to account and impose personal sanctions on all those responsible for undermining democracy in Georgia, who are complicit in the violence committed against political opponents and peaceful protesters and who spread anti-Western disinformation;'

Second part 'welcomes the personal sanctions imposed by the US on Georgian Dream officials;'

First part 'Expresses deep concern about the increased influence of Russia in Georgia, including increased immigration from Russia, increased trade ties with Russia and Georgia's willingness to pursue reconciliation with Russia'

Second part 'despite Russia's war in Ukraine and its occupation of a fifth of Georgian sovereign territory; calls on the Government of Georgia to impose sanctions against Russia in response to its war of aggression against Ukraine, continue its previous policy of non-recognition of the occupied territories and honour its commitment to enforce effective measures to avoid the circumvention of European sanctions; encourages the Government of Georgia to align fully with the EU's foreign policy and the EU's strategy towards Russia;'
