The Left:
§ 5
First part 'Calls for the EU and its Member States to actively work towards maintaining and achieving the broadest possible international support for Ukraine and identifying a peaceful solution to the war, which must be based on full respect for Ukraine's independence, sovereignty and territorial integrity, the principles of international law, accountability for war crimes and the crime of aggression committed by Russia, and Russian reparations and other payments for the massive material and immaterial damage caused in Ukraine; insists that no negotiations about Ukraine can take place without Ukraine; calls for the engagement of the EU and the Member States in implementing Ukraine's Peace Formula and establishing the necessary conditions for holding the second Summit on Peace, also engaging countries from the Global South; is convinced that the EU and its Member States must participate in establishing Ukraine's future robust security guarantees, based on Ukraine's Peace Formula and Victory Plan, with a clear strategy, specific goals and a concrete roadmap;'
Second part 'regrets the German Chancellor's recent phone call with Vladimir Putin;'

§ 19

First part	'Welcomes US President Joe Biden's decision to allow Ukraine to use advanced rocket systems on military targets within Russian territory,'
Second part	'highlighting that this authorisation respects Ukraine's legitimate right to self-defence under Article 51 of the UN Charter;'
Third part	'calls for the EU and its Member States to adopt similar measures,'
Fourth part	'removing restrictions on the use of military systems for legitimate defensive operations beyond Ukraine's borders to deter further Russian aggression;'
ESN:
§ 4
First part	Text as a whole without the words: 'until Ukraine's victory'
Second part	those words
§ 16
First part	Text as a whole without the words: 'urges the Member States to actively pressure Hungary to end its irresponsible blockade of the European Peace Facility,'
Second part	those words
§ 17
First part	'Urges the Council and the Member States to systematically tackle the issue of sanctions circumvention by EU-based companies and individuals, third parties and non-EU states and to adopt and strictly implement restrictive measures against all entities facilitating the circumvention of sanctions and providing Russia's military complex with military and dual-use technologies and equipment, ensuring that no loopholes are exploited to channel arms or resources to Russia; considers it essential to strengthen controls on the export and maintenance of high-tech equipment produced in the EU, and to increase law enforcement measures and cooperation to prevent sanctions circumvention;'
Second part	'calls to urgently intensify the review of EU Member States' trade with Central Asian countries, as well as with Türkiye and Azerbaijan, among others, as they are clearly used in EU sanctions evasion;'
§ 23
First part	'Reiterates its call for the EU and its Member States to take more substantive steps towards establishing creative solutions under a sound legal regime allowing for the confiscation of Russian state-owned assets frozen by the EU,'
Second part	'and for their use to address the various implications of Russia's war of aggression against Ukraine, including the prevention of further destruction and loss of life, reconstruction of the country and compensation for the victims of Russia's aggression; stresses that any future claim by Russia to these assets may only be settled after an overall consideration of the outstanding reparations due to Ukraine; stresses the importance of the Ukraine Facility as a mechanism for long-term financial support, reconstruction and recovery efforts, and urges its swift and efficient implementation; calls on the Commission to propose long-term financial assistance beyond 2027 for the reconstruction of Ukraine, building on the experience of the Ukraine Facility;'
First part	'Calls for the EU and its Member States to further strengthen their military support for Ukraine,'
Second part	'including through the provision of aircraft, long-range missiles,'
Third part	'including Taurus missiles,'
Fourth part	'modern air defence systems, including Patriots and SAMP/T, and ammunition, as well as MANPADS, artillery and training programmes for Ukrainian forces,' without the words 'including Patriots and SAMP/T,'
Fifth part	'including Patriots and SAMP/T,'
Sixth part	'and calls for accelerated delivery of the equipment pledged to meet Ukraine's urgent needs;'
Seventh part	'reiterates its position that all EU Member States and NATO allies should collectively and individually commit to supporting Ukraine militarily, with no less than 0.25 % of their GDP annually; welcomes the signing of the joint security commitments between the EU and Ukraine and calls for the Commission and Member States to act swiftly to effectively implement the commitments made; calls on the Commission and the Council to prioritise making the European IRIS2 space communication capabilities fully operational and to grant Ukraine (and Taiwan) access as soon as possible;'

Miscellaneous

Sebastião Bugalho had moved the following oral amendment to paragraph 16 (and, by extension, to recitals Q and T):

‘Calls for the EU institutions and the Member States to actively contribute towards maintaining unity on sanctions and to swiftly pursue the adoption of the 15th package of sanctions; urges the Member States to actively pressure the Hungarian Government to end its irresponsible blockade of the European Peace Facility, including the newly established Ukraine Assistance Fund, which has prevented the release of EUR 6,6 billion in partial reimbursements to Member States providing military support to Ukraine; stresses that if the EPF remains blocked until the next European Council, a new format must immediately be established that only includes those Member States that are willing and able to provide military aid to Ukraine, or national contributions must be reimbursed in order not to hamper the smooth financing of bilateral aid;’
