MEPs to discuss European and global security with NATO Secretary General Rutte

On Monday, NATO Secretary General Mark Rutte will make his first official visit to the European Parliament since taking office on 1 October 2024.

When: Monday, 13 January from 16.00 to 17.15 CET.

Where: European Parliament in Brussels, ANTALL 2Q2 and via Parliament's webstreaming.

Mr Rutte will meet with members of the Committee on Foreign Affairs, the Subcommittee on Security and Defence and the Delegation for Relations with the NATO Parliamentary Assembly.

In the context of Russia's ongoing war of aggression against Ukraine and the new US administration taking office later this month, the topics to be discussed will primarily focus on efforts to strengthen NATO defence and deterrence as well as the delivery of military assistance to Ukraine. MEPs will also inquire about other regional and global security threats that require close cooperation between the EU and NATO.

Press point

After the meeting, Foreign Affairs Committee Chair David McAllister (EPP, Germany), Chair of the Subcommittee on Security and Defence Marie-Agnes Strack-Zimmermann (Renew Europe, Germany) and NATO Secretary General Mark Rutte will hold a joint press point.
