Re: FOIA-2018-00775
Warning letters re April 10th press release

Dear Mr. Miksad:

This is in response to your request dated April 11, 2018 under the Freedom of Information Act seeking access to copies of the six warning letters referenced in the April 10, 2018 Press release titled "FTC Staff Warns Companies that it is Illegal to Condition Warranty Coverage on the Use of Specified Parts or Services" In accordance with the FOIA and agency policy, we have searched our records, as of April 11, 2018, the date we received your request in our FOIA office.

We have located 12 pages of responsive records. You are granted full access to the responsive records, which are enclosed. Please note that warning letters are issued by FTC staff and reflect staff views on a particular matter at the time the warning letters are sent. The conduct of the recipient or content of the at-issue material may have since changed.

If you are not satisfied with this response to your request, you may appeal by writing to Freedom of Information Act Appeal, Office of the General Counsel, Federal Trade Commission, 600 Pennsylvania Avenue, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20580, or via email at FOIAAppeal@ftc.gov, within 90 days of the date of this letter. Please enclose a copy of your original request and a copy of this response.

You also may seek dispute resolution services from the FTC FOIA Public Liaison Richard Gold via telephone at 202-326-3355 or via e-mail at rgold@ftc.gov; or from the Office of Government Information Services via email at ogis@nara.gov, via fax at 202-741-5769, or via mail at Office of Government Information Services (OGIS), National Archives and Records Administration, 8601 Adelphi Road, College Park, MD 20740.

If you have any questions about the way we are handling your request or about the FOIA regulations or procedures, please contact Chip Taylor at 202-326-3258.

Sincerely,
