

2022 Form 1041-V

Department of the Treasury
Internal Revenue Service

Go to www.irs.gov/Form1041V for the latest information.

Any reference in these instructions to “you” means the fiduciary of the estate or trust.

What Is Form 1041-V and Do You Have To Use It?

It is a statement you send with a check or money order for any balance due on line 28 (Tax due) of the estate’s or trust’s 2022 Form 1041. Using Form 1041-V allows us to process the payment more accurately and efficiently. We strongly encourage you to use Form 1041-V, but there is no penalty if you don’t.

You may choose to pay any balance due electronically. If you do, you don’t need to send in Form 1041-V. For more information about electronic payment options, go to www.irs.gov/E-Pay.

How To Fill in Form 1041-V

Line 1. Enter the estate’s or trust’s employer identification number (EIN) as shown on its return.

Line 2. Enter the amount you are paying by check or money order.

Line 3. Enter the name of the estate or trust.

Line 4. Enter your name and title.

Line 5. Enter your address exactly as shown on the estate’s or trust’s return. Please print clearly.

How To Prepare the Payment

- Make the check or money order payable to “United States Treasury.” Don’t send cash.
- Make sure the name of the estate or trust appears on the check or money order.

• Write the estate’s or trust’s EIN and “2022 Form 1041” on the check or money order.

• To help us process the payment, enter the amount on the right side of the check like this: $ XXX.XX. Don’t use dashes or lines (for example, don’t enter “$ XXX—” or “$ XXX ^{xx}/₁₀₀”).

No Checks of $100 Million or More Accepted

The IRS can’t accept a single check (including a cashier’s check) for amounts of $100,000,000 ($100 million) or more. If you’re sending $100 million or more by check, you’ll need to spread the payments over two or more checks with each check made out for an amount less than $100 million. The $100 million or more amount limit doesn’t apply to other methods of payment (such as electronic payments), so please consider paying by means other than checks.

How To Send in the Estate’s or Trust’s 2022 Tax Return, Payment, and Form 1041-V

- Detach Form 1041-V along the dotted line.
- Don’t staple or otherwise attach the payment or Form 1041-V to the return or to each other. Instead, just put them loose in an envelope.
- Mail the estate’s or trust’s 2022 tax return, payment, and Form 1041-V to the address shown on the back that applies to you.
