

Table of contents

Preface	9
Roberto Bissio
From social contract to private contracts:
The privatisation of health, education and basic infrastructure
A review of the 2003 Social Watch country reports	11
Tim Kessler
Public services at risk: GATS and the privatisation agenda	16
Citizens' Network on Essential Services
Privatising human rights – the impact of globalisation on adequate housing, water and sanitation	18
Miloon Kothari
The marketisation of social reproduction in the new service-led economy	22
Marina Fe B. Durano
Forging a Global Partnership for Development: Some Critical Issues	24
Martin Khor
Europe for business or Europe for its people? The European Union and the GATS	26
Mirjam van Reisen
Globalisation and trade: challenges for the Arab World	30
Ziad Abdel Samad
 MEASURING PROGRESS
Some comments on country-to-country poverty comparisons	34
Andrea Vigorito
Assessment of the advances up to 2000	37
About the methodology	40
Sources of the infographics «The Hood Robin Economy»	42
Information poverty	44
Statistics showing country by country progress toward social development goals	48
Progress or regressions in the fulfilment of the Copenhagen goals	71
Gender gap evolution	75
Changes in public expenditure	77
Trends of the official development assistance	79
Table of signatures and ratifications of international treaties mentioned in the Millennium Declaration	80
Table of signatures and ratifications of key international agreements	82
Table of ratifications of Fundamental ILO Conventions	84
Progress towards the Millennium Development Goals	86

NATIONAL REPORTS

ARGENTINA	92
In the hands of the oligopoly of foreign capital
BAHRAIN	94
Scarce transparency in services policies
BANGLADESH	96
Corruption and mismanagement threaten jute mills
BOLIVIA	98
Water and privatisation: doubtful benefits, concrete threats
BRAZIL	100
The implicit agenda of a conservative patrimonial reform
BULGARIA	102
The big sale in the water supply market
CAMBODIA	104
The long road to poverty eradication
CANADA	106
Will Canada pawn or polish the jewel in the crown of its social security system?
CHILE	108
The brutal rationale of privatisation
COLOMBIA	110
The violation of social rights within market rationale
COSTA RICA	112
Selling our grandparents' inheritance
ECUADOR	114
Adjustments, debt and privatisations: what will become of our rights?
EL SALVADOR	116
Privatisation: a process with cracks
GERMANY	118
The unacknowledged social implications
GHANA	120
The struggle over water
HONDURAS	122
The invisible price women have to pay for privatisation
INDIA	124
Erosion of rights and marketisation of development
ITALY	126
Federalism, privatisation and an individualist philosophy
JORDAN	128
The money into the pockets of foreign companies
KAZAKHSTAN	130
To the detriment of women, children and the poor
KENYA	132
The stark realities of an ideological orthodoxy
KOREA	134
Privatisation, conflict and discontent
LEBANON	136
Confronting the fiscal crisis through privatization
MALAYSIA	138
The high cost of private monopolies

MEXICO	140
Now the responsibility lies with the individuals
MOROCCO	142
On the way to deepening social inequalities
NEPAL	144
Rockbottom economic status
NETHERLANDS	146
The poor unprotected
NICARAGUA	148
A nation in the dark
NORWAY	150
The current undermining of the Welfare State
PAKISTAN	152
Extreme poverty, forced labour, «honour crimes»...
PALESTINE	154
Relying on others: provision of water and health care
PANAMA	156
The neo-liberal State: debt, inequality and poverty
PARAGUAY	158
Social mobilisation against privatisation
PERU	160
The people halt privatisation
PHILIPPINES	162
The water case: increased rates for poorer services
PORTUGAL	164
An urgent need for public awareness
SENEGAL	166
Less State, fewer benefits
SOUTH AFRICA	168
The widening gap between rich and poor
SPAIN	170
A priority debate postponed
SUDAN	172
The damage of declining public investment on services
SURINAME	174
Shape up or ship out!
TANZANIA	176
Benefit of an elite at the expense of the poor majority
THAILAND	178
The dark side of global markets
TUNISIA	180
Democratic deficits in the midst of liberalisation
UGANDA	182
Privatisation versus the poor
UNITED KINGDOM	184
Privatisation: a troubling legacy
UNITED STATES	186
Service industry deregulation: corporate crime and tougher disciplines on the poor
URUGUAY	188
The reform of the social sector: statism, inequality and privatisation by default
VENEZUELA	190
The social programme of the Bolivarian Republic
VIET NAM	192
The Dai Moi policy and its impact on the poor
ZAMBIA	194
Poverty in the midst of the market: the Zambian scenario
Sources and Resources	196

TABLES AND CHARTS IN THE COUNTRY REPORTS

Brazil	Table 1: Current account (USD billions)	100
	Table 2: Foreign investors in PND (USD millions)	101
Cambodia	Table 1: Budget expenditure through the National Treasury	104
	Table 2: A Comparison of social and economic development investment	104
Chile	Chart 1: Secondary and higher education coverage per income quintile (%)	109
	Chart 2: Female population in the health insurance system	109
Costa Rica	Table 1: Income from EBAIS care – Private companies (2002 – USD millions)	112
	Table 2: Regular education institutions and services by functional unit, Initial public and private education enrolment (2002)	113
Ecuador	Chart 1: Evolution of the Trade Balance	114
	Chart 2: Money wage vs. basic family basket	114
	Table 1: Increase in the price of basic services (energy, gas and water)	115
El Salvador	Table 1: Programme of neo-liberal measures in El Salvador ...	116
India	Table 1: Expenditure of central and state governments on health	125
Lebanon	Table 1: Main privatisation candidates	137
Mexico	Table 1: Proportion of the poor population in Mexico, 2000	141
Morocco	Table 1: Evolution of health care (1990-2000)	143
	Table 2: Trends in education (1990-2000) - Total enrolment (in thousands)	143
Netherlands	BOX: Lessons of privatisation of non-essential services	147
Pakistan	Table 1: Human deprivation profile	152
	Table 2: Wealth and poverty	152
Spain	Table 1: Participation of Spanish companies in the privatisation of BSS in Argentina and Chile	171
Tanzania	Chart 1: Exempt patients attended at Nachingwea District Hospital	177
Uganda	Table 1: Proportional morbidity of the top ten causes in the Outpatient Department (%)	183
Uruguay	BOX: The financial crisis	189
Viet Nam	Table 1: Access to healthcare services by income quintiles	193