Facebook Posting Policy

GHUCCTS's mission is to promote clinical research awareness, diversity in research, and community engaged research. We encourage you to interact with us on our Facebook page (https://www.facebook.com/GHUCCTSCommunity). While your participation is important to us, we are dedicated to maintaining a respectful environment that actively engages in conversations.

The GHUCCTS Communications and Social Media team has established the following guidelines for public comments, and currently monitors all comments on the @GHUCCTSCommunity Facebook page.

GHUCCTS administrators reserve the right to delete or block users who post the following:

- Obscenity, profanity, nudity, defamation or hate speech (Speech that targets people or groups based on race, ethnicity, religion, gender, or any other protected status)
- Comments/posts that threaten to harm individuals, groups or organizations
- "Trolling" (making deliberately offensive or provocative post with the aim of upsetting someone or eliciting an angry response from them)
- Spam
- Comments with the intent to sell a product or service (Advertisements OR solicitation, including promotion or endorsement of any financial, commercial, or non-governmental agency)
- Endorsement or encouragement of illegal activities
- Off topic comments
- Repetitive posts that are copied and pasted
- Personal information including, but not limited to e-mail addresses, telephone numbers, mailing addresses, or identification numbers of any kind (Social Security numbers, student identification numbers, etc.)
- Please be polite to all members of our community, including commenters, authors, and subjects of posts.

Please be aware that while administrators are responsible for moderating the page, we cannot immediately review every comment posted on a page.
