

Tribe Privacy Policy & Support Info

Your time is valuable so we'll keep things simple.

Tribe Website

We collect your email address and no other information from you.

Tribe App

We collect information when you login to the Tribe app via Facebook Login. The information we access is your public_profile, email and user_friends. We also request access to your user_likes.

Use of Information

1. We use this information to customize your Tribe app experience and allow us to deliver the type of content and product offerings which you will be most interested in.
2. We also use this information by adding you to our list of interested customers and send you occasional newsletter.
3. We promise not to transfer your information to any 3rd party services that are not directly required for us to perform business.
4. Every email we send will include a link to opt out of any future communication. You can also contact us directly if you wish for your data to be 100% deleted.

Support / Contacting Us

If there are any questions regarding this privacy policy and/or you wish to get in touch, you may contact us by emailing: support@tribesportsapp.com.

This policy may be changed in the future. That's all for now.
